For Immediate Release

On November 13, 2018, the rank and file membership of the Baltimore Police Department voted to accept the labor agreement recently negotiated with the City of Baltimore. We are grateful to the commitment and dedication of our Labor Team who diligently worked for months to find a way forward through a very difficult negotiation process.

While our members agreed that this proposal was less than ideal, the alternative to acceptance was dismal, at best. Instead, they made the hard choice in order to preserve our contractual rights, going forward.

In the weeks and months to come, we will be working closely with the BPD Command to monitor the implementation of, and adherence to, the terms and conditions of this contract.
